

Online music program-Registration Form

Encore! Sistema Quebec is thrilled to be offering a new online music program during the COVID-19 crisis. Our staff has expanded to include music educators and musicians dedicated to developing new methodology that will deliver long distance musical instruction. Our devoted instructors will receive professional development training to support their online instruction of students. We are committed to offering an enriching musical experience online during the pandemic.

Our adapted online program includes: Music Lessons, Group Lessons (including orchestra and/or band), Note Reading/Music Theory, Musical Creation/Songwriting, and a Body and Rhythm program.

Program Details

Music Lessons:

Private or semi-private instruction on the instrument of your choice will be offered (one 30-minute lesson/week). Instructors will prepare detailed lesson plans with clear methodology.

Group Lessons/Orchestra/Band:

We propose to hold physically distanced group/orchestra/band rehearsals once or twice per week (one hour in duration) according to our partners' building/operational rules and regulations.

Note Reading/Music Theory:

Group instruction will be offered to groups of up to 30 students. Online classes will be held once per week, one hour in duration.

Musical Creation/Songwriting:

One hour - long classes will be offered for groups of up to 4 or 5 students once a week.

Body and Rhythm:

Hands on rhythm program will provide movement and physical activity while learning about rhythms and coordinating different parts of the body. One - hour /once / week.
